

December 2009

Hello and welcome to our newsletter.

About Shaniqua:

Shaniqua was founded in July 2008. I chose the name Shaniqua to reflect my jewellery – unique and beautiful. Having lived overseas for much of my younger life, I loved the beautiful, handcrafted jewellery I saw in market places and artisan stores. I have always bought jewellery whilst travelling and saw a niche market growing in Australia for fashion jewellery that was unique, but with affordable prices.

Now we have our own online store and have introduced bridal and Communion jewellery to the range.

Much of our jewellery range is handmade and we are very proud of it. We hope you enjoy it.

Bespoke Jewellery

We can make jewellery to order. If you have a design in mind or a special occasion coming up and you need something specific just contact us.

We can make you something lovely in just the right colour and size. We work with you to create the design and then custom make the piece to fit.

Exclusive Offer

All purchases prior to Christmas will come with a free jewellery pouch and free gift wrapping.

Merry Christmas to you all.

Have a safe and happy holiday season.

See you in the New Year.
